How does Baha'i spirituality help us develop mental clarity, spiritual awareness, inner calm, and even physical health? In Baha'i Spirituality we will begin with a discussion of prayer and meditation in comparative perspective. Then we will consider the distinctive elements of Baha'i prayer and meditation; the artistry of bodily postures and divine verses blended in the obligatory prayers; the history and significance of the Greatest Name and its use in prayers and meditations; the spiritual and physiological benefits of fasting; and how fasting might promote self-control and restraint. We will read and discuss insights from recent studies in medicine, psychology, and other scholarly fields to aid us in understanding how Baha'i spirituality can lead to profound experiences of peace, encouragement, and joy.

Living Responsibly Make Your Daily Life a Beautiful Prayer: Hang Your Laundry Out to Dry for the Children of the World!

"Therefore strive that your actions day by day may be beautiful prayers." --'Ahdii'-

In The Bab and Baha'u'llah: Two Lives, One Story, we will delve into the dramatic story at the heart of the Holy Anniversary years 2017 and 2019 as the Baha'i world prepares to celebrate the births of Baha'u'llah and the Bab. From Shiraz to Tabriz, from the affluent courtyards of Tehran to the prison-city of Acre, The Story of Baha'u'llah: Promised One of All Religions, the text for the course, brings to life the story of the Twin Manifestations at the origin of the Baha'i Faith: the Bab ("the Gate") and Baha'u'llah ("the Glory of God"), each with a distinct but connected mission. Together their revelations are for a humanity about to enter a new evolutionary stage--the maturity of the human race. The story unfolds in two parts. Part One: The Dawn introduces Baha'u'llah in Tehran and interweaves events in the life of the Bab and His principal disciples, basic facts about Islam, and millennial expectations of Christians. Part Two: The Sun in Its Splendor recounts the dramatic events of life in exile for Baha'u'llah and His family, together with highlights of His writings and the emerging significance of 'Abdu'l-Baha. Throughout our study, references to world events and well-known American figures add context. We will also discuss some basic guidance about storytelling so that in a supportive environment you can explore and practice sharing these stories yourself, whether in a conversation with a friend or in a more formal setting. There are no hard storytelling requirements; the joy is in learning how simple it can be.

Shoghi Effendi's dramatic letter, The Promised Day Is Come, was written in the early months of 1941, while the vast majority of the world's countries were being drawn into the deadliest conflict in human history. The horrors of World War II could have been averted if humanity had accepted the teachings of Baha'u'llah. However, the Prescription by the Divine Physician had been met with "cold indifference," and the Central Figures of the Faith had been cruelly persecuted. The World War, then, was both a retributory calamity, punishing the perversity of the human race, and a "cleansing process," welding the peoples and nations into a single, world-embracing community, and preparing humanity for the future "Most Great Peace." In this course we will study Baha'u'llah's proclamations to the world's rulers and their responses, the recipients of His message and their ensuing humiliation, and how "This process of deterioration . . . is still operating with undiminished force." Finally, we will reflect on the role each of us must play during the current Five Year Plan in "leading humanity out of the valley of misery and shame to the loftiest summits of power and glory."

Baha'u'llah described agriculture as "a vital and important matter" that was foremost among the principles "conducive to the advancement of mankind and to the reconstruction of the world" (Tablets of Baha'u'llah Revealed After the Kitab-i-Aqdas 90, 89). Yet current agricultural policy often prioritizes yield and profit over health, sustainability, and sociocultural features of rural communities, while the poor struggle to even feed themselves, and climate change makes farming increasingly unpredictable. These and other factors threaten food security. In Baha'i Perspectives on Agriculture and Food, we will examine the teachings of the Baha'i Faith on agriculture, food, and rural development; relate these teachings to contemporary public discourse on these issues; and suggest ways in which agricultural activities can be incorporated into core activities, community-building, and emerging social action.

Revealed in January 1861, the Kitab-i-Iqan (the Book of Certitude) is the "most important book written on the spiritual significance of the Cause" and a work that Baha'u'llah calls "the lord of books." Among the "foremost" works of His Revelation, the Iqan is "unequalled by any work in the entire range of Baha'i literature, except the Kitab-i-Aqdas." The Iqan is unique in that "this Book alone" provides the basis for reconciling the followers of "the great religions of the world." It "contains the basic tenets of the Faith" and "explains the attitude" of the Baha'i Faith toward "the prophets of God and their mission in the history of society." It elucidates key allegorical passages in the New Testament and the Qur'an that

Building a World Federation: The Key to Resolving our Global Crises

A course in a series on global civilization

Lead Faculty: Sovaida Maani Ewing

Duration of course: Seven weeks (August 20 - October 7, 2017)

As humanity passes through stages of collective growth and moves toward integration and unity, it finds itself caught in the thick of many painful and seemingly intractable challenges that mark a turbulent adolescence--crises such as climate change, financial upheavals, proliferation of nuclear weapons, gross human-rights atrocities, and mismanagement of critical natural resources. In Building a World Federation: The Key to Resolving Our Global Crises, we will examine how we can solve these and similar problems using 'Abdu'l-Baha's advice offered a century ago about establishing collective decision-making and implementing institutions that can and should evolve into a world federation of nation-states. We will also explore the lessons we can usefully glean from the American experience of establishing a federation as well as from Europe's ongoing experiment as it moves toward deeper integration. Finally, we will learn how to respond effectively to skeptics who argue that creating a global federation is a pipe-dream because nations will never be willing to cede sovereignty, and we will equip ourselves with ways to allay fears that such a move will lead to an abusive world government that is so excessively centralized that it will not heed the voices of diverse populations and minorities and will trample upon their rights.

One in a series of courses exploring an integrated approach to world religions

Lead Faculty: Susan Maneck

Duration of course: Seven weeks (August 25 - October 12, 2017)

Zoroastrianism, an ancient religious tradition founded by Zoroaster, or Zarathustra, some five hundred to one thousand years before Christ, is the focus of Zoroastrianism for Deepening and Dialogue. We will examine Zoroaster's life; what has survived of His words; His teachings; the subsequent spread and development of the Zoroastrian tradition; references to Zoroastrianism in the writings of Baha'u'llah and 'Abdu'l-Baha; and the relationship of Zoroastrianism to later religions (Judaism, Christianity, Islam, and the Baha'i Faith). We will study Zoroaster and the divinely ordained religion He founded to deepen in the basics of Zoroastrianism and its relationship to the Baha'i Faith and to prepare for dialogue with adherents of Zoroastrianism.
