

Harmonic Matrix

Spiritual reality, faithfully evident, confident, fearlessly welcomes material core's insistent unguided exploration.

Two seamless voyages sailing, method consistent, harmony, the billowing propulsion, axiomatic upon reflection.

Two fleets' course set, compass points and sextant poles aligned, yet the armada separates and enters the Horse Latitudes doldrums.

Explore Creation, comprehend Revelation, identic safe harbors to find, one crew lashes rafts together, the other driftwood, scattered conundrums.

The albatross and the erne are maimed by this illogical, false separation, materialist wing strong, the spiritual weak, or incomprehensively vice versa.

Plunge together, working apart, into dark capitalist, superstitious sea of nature, all the while sharing desires to embrace the wonders of the matrix universe.

A bird with two strong wings, slipping the bonds, and the navies rejoined, mankind climbs, sees the unfathomable horizon of sea bend back upon itself.

The universe unfolds, man, God's ultimate creation, discerns where he is going, ultimate station, to be with Him, in the universe and universe within himself.

One wing—physics, cosmology, and all the other sciences of the rational man, enlightened—provides timbers of one bridge to God’s Reality. Noble goal.
Growth, evolution, physical and metaphysical, of enlightened humanity can describe and elaborate the matrix provided for the development of the soul.

Child of matrix womb, no ability to affect growth, unaware, or perhaps wary, child in the material matrix world, gifted by God of free will and intellect.
Sail the ship of the material matrix to harmony, spirituality and love—do not tarry.
Whither Luddites? Embrace and shape matrix for love of all and good effect.
