

GTU

Office of Dean

August 2, 2021

The courses "The Baha'i Faith: A Comprehensive Introduction" (HRST-8150), taught by Dr. Robert Stockman, and "Anti-Black Racism in the US and Building a Unified Society" (RS-8220), taught by Dr. Emily Agbenyega, are offered as officially approved 3-credit courses by the Graduate Theological Union in the Fall 2021 semester.

Both courses will be presented via remote modalities using the GTU's Moodle platform and are open to GTU students and to students affiliated with the Wilmette Institute. Registration may be accomplished through the GTU's SONIS system.

The GTU is accredited by WSCUC (WASC Senior College and University Commission) and ATS (Association of Theological Schools).