We warmly invite you to the 28th Annual Conference of the International Environment Forum! It will take place online 14–28 September 2024, alongside the UN Summit of the Future \(SoTF\).

The overall conference theme is A World-embracing Vision for a Sustainable Future. Such a vision of global interconnectedness and solidarity must be at the foundation of global governance and even guide local action for environmental sustainability and human wellbeing. You are invited to listen to the voices of youth, of leaders of thought, and of community and sustainability builders from around the world. Everyone is welcome to attend any or all of the four events. This link to the conference webpage provides details about the speakers and each event: <https://iefworld.org/conf28>
