

CONNECTING FOR CHANGE: A LEARNING SERIES

Join our Learning Series!

The Wilmette Institute invites youth and young adults (ages 18–30) to join four engaging 10-week extension courses, adapted from our Certificate Program in Social Transformation. Each course creates a vibrant space to discuss pressing social issues in the United States, build community, and contribute to public discourse. Connect with inspiring peers, deepen your understanding, and take meaningful action in your community!

Course Features:

- Fully online with weekly 90-minute Zoom sessions
- Orientation to our learning platform, the Bahá'í framework for action, and public discourse
- Community project to apply learning locally
- About 4 hours/week commitment

How to enroll:

- Access bit.ly/4jvQ6ln.
- Click on Register Now.
- Complete the registration form.
- On the Fees page, select either a Student fee ($50) or a Baha'i-sponsored fee if your LSA has confirmed sponsorship.

Next Course Begins Sep 3, 2025

Courses in the Learning Series

1 Nurturing Capacity and Community: Transformative Approaches to Education.

2 Towards Oneness and Justice: Transformative Approaches to Anti-Racism

3 Becoming Protagonists for Social Change

4 Recasting Our Relationship with the Natural World